2. On 14 May between 11 and 11:30 a.m., about 30 IL-10 ground attack aircraft, painted green and having white numbers on their fuselages, were parked in one row on the northern edge of the field. The [redacted] 47, 51, and 54 were seen. Eighteen planes of the same or a similar type, but [redacted] were parked in one row farther east. About 30 single-engine planes were seen in front of the hangars on the southern edge of the field. There was no flying. It was raining. Passenger car [redacted] was leaving the barracks installations north of the field. Tank truck [redacted] was being refilled from a railroad tank car at Doberitz railroad station. *

Comment. The type and number of aircraft observed indicates that the occupation by two ground attack regiments has not changed. About 130 IL-10s are stationed at the field.
